Hello Aaron,

Educational planning is a critical step in achieving your goals, whether it is to transfer, earn an associate degree, a certificate, or any combination of these! MyEdPlan will allow you to create an education plan reflective of your goals. You can also track your progress toward your goal as you meet major/program/degree requirements. You can come back and modify your education plan anytime on your own or with the assistance of a counselor, in person. It is critical you meet with counselors regularly to verify all is going according to plan and so you can be sure you are taking the classes you need to reach your goals. We are confident that as long as you keep track of your progress using MyEdPlan and meet with counselors regularly, you will definitely be the successful college student you came here to be!

Which Math should I take?
Which Math should I take?

If you are unsure as to which math class to take, use the drop-down menus below to see our best recommendation for you. Remember, this is just a recommendation and you should confirm it with a counselor. By default, this wizard assumes you are interested in an Associate or a Bachelor's degree.

Steps to use this Wizard:
1. Select the course you placed into or for which you are currently eligible.
2. Select the general area of your major.
3. Review "Our recommendation" section.
4. Add the class to your ed plan.

Note that in some cases, there will not be a recommendation available for a major. Selecting the "Any major" option may be the best choice. Give it a try!

Clarity Educational Goal

Which type of university are you most interested in at this time?

- A University of California (UC) campus
- A California State University (CSU) campus
- Either a UC or CSU campus
- California private college or university
- Out-of-state college or university
- Undecided

For Your Information

Admission to the University of California is very competitive and you must satisfy many requirements—all of which, you can meet while at SMC. It is important that you meet with a counselor once you start classes so we can discuss these requirements in-depth. For now, this is what you need to know:

- A minimum of 60 UC-applicable units are required for transfer to the UC. Among these you will take courses to meet:
  1. general education requirements;
  2. major requirements; and
  3. possibly some electives.

The report below lists your education plans. Students can create a maximum of 5 education plans, but only one can be your primary, or main, plan.

To create a new education plan, click on the "New EdPlan" button and follow the instructions.

- You can only edit an ed plan you created—marked with a pencil icon.
- You may view and print an ed plan that has an "eye" icon. These plans were developed or approved by a counselor.
