

Net Price Calculator

Please read. This calculator is intended to provide estimated net price information (defined as estimated cost of attendance — including tuition and required fees, books and supplies, room and board (meals), and other related expenses — minus estimated grant and scholarship aid) to current and prospective students and their families based on what similar students paid in a previous year.

By clicking below, I acknowledge that the estimate provided using this calculator does not constitute a final net price, and that the estimate is based on data that may not be available to you. The estimate is based on the most current data available to the Secretary of Education.

Student information (such as name, address, and phone number) is not shared with the Secretary of Education (A) in order to determine the net price. The net price is based on the information provided for the Federal Student Aid (FSA) form. The net price is based on the information provided for the Federal Student Aid (FSA) form.

Note: An estimated net price does not include the cost of books and supplies, room and board, and other related expenses. You may want to store your net price information for future reference.
