SANTA MONICA COLLEGE

Automotive Instructors

Position: Automotive Mechanics Instructors (Part-time Faculty)

Application Filing Deadline: Open Until Filled
   First review of applications – Week of November 10, 2008.
   Candidates must submit a district application and a resume for consideration.

Salary range: $62.55/hr - $67.41/hr.

Start date: Teaching: Spring 2009.

Examples of Duties:

Teach evening automotive courses, including basic automotive maintenance and mechanics, electrical, brakes and emerging automotive technology
Assist in developing the automotive instructional program and curricula in conjunction with the department, advisory committee, and employers.
Articulate courses and the program with area community colleges.
Assist with outreach and recruitment of students into the program.
Maintain appropriate records, prepare reports and compile data as necessary.
Participate in department functions, such as staff meetings, committees, etc.
Prepare classroom and lab facilities as well as tools and instructional aids in preparation for teaching. Button up facilities after class.

State Minimum Requirements:

1. Demonstrated knowledge, skills and abilities to work with students with diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, sexual orientations, disabilities and ethnic backgrounds.
2. Earned Bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution plus two years of professional experience directly related to the assignment; OR THE EQUIVALENT* or
   Earned Associate Degree from an accredited institution plus six years of professional experience directly related to the assignment; OR THE EQUIVALENT* or
   A fully-satisfied LIFE California Community College Instructor Credential in Industrial Trade (Automotive Mechanics).
*If you qualify under equivalency, please indicate why you consider your qualifications to be equivalent to those listed.

Desirable Qualifications:

- Prior teaching experience in the automotive mechanics area at the college level.
- Demonstrated ability to develop curriculum in accordance with industry standards.
- Experience with current and emerging automotive practices and trends.
- Current skills and recent experience in working on automotive engines, electrical systems, and brakes.
- Knowledge of health and safety regulations of California O.S.H.A and O.S.H.A
- Current A.S.E. certification(s).

Application Procedure: To request a district application, please call 310-434-4336 (24 hr. employment information), or visit the website at www.smc.edu. Submit application materials to: Office of Human Resources, Santa Monica Community College, 1900 Pico Blvd., Santa Monica, CA 90405.

Contact Person: Fran Chandler, Department Chair of Business, 310.434.4641, chandler_fran@smc.edu