Present: Judith Douglas, Judy Neveau, Patricia Burson, Kiersten Elliott, Cindy Kelly, Roberto Gonzalez

Guest: Laura Manson

1. Judy Douglas will be on sabbatical in Fall 2010. Possible replacements for her are Steve Hunt or Valerie Narey. Judith will speak to them and to Eric about her substitute.

2. Georgia Lorenz and Brandon Lewis will discuss how the Global Citizenship and Study Abroad programs can work together on the presentation.

3. Theme will be Tides of Change : What does it mean? What does it matter? (ties into the water theme) and color scheme will be shades of blue

4. The Pavillion will be the venue for the first part of flex day (till 9:45)

5. The three themes will be introduced by the following people:

Patricia Ramos/Laura Manson--Career and Technical Education

Global Citizenship – Georgia Lorenz , Kelly Brayton

Basic Skills – Roberto Gonzalez

Tentative timeline:

8:00-8:30	Coffee/Networking/Poster Session
8:30-9:45	Opening (Speakers)
10:00-10:45	Video and speakers (focus on students and their feedback about what makes their life harder at SMC)
11:00-12:00	Workshop Session 1
12:00-1:30	Lunch and Poster Session
1:45-2:45	Workshop Session 2
3:00	Raffle and Closing remarks

6. There will fifteen workshops per each session (each initiative will have 5/session..

7. Laura Manson discussed possible topics for the CTE workshops that will be given on flex day. They are:

- 1. How to contextualize STE in curriculum across academic disciplines and why it is important
- 2. Presentation and discussion of the CTE collaborative grant and partnership with Long Beach City College
- 3. Possible new CTE programs

- 4. Career pathways as a systemic framework (sample of Laura's common final)
- 5. Industry inventory preliminary results; EMSI users; status of SMC CTE and what's new and emerging.

8. Steve Hunt and Valerie Narey will solicit participants for the poster session

9. Logistics for the day:

- Poster sessions and refreshments/food will be in the Pavillion on the other side of the curtain from the table seating.
- Permit request has been submitted to set up for the event. The Pavillion will be in use until 6:00pm on March 17, so set up will begin at 6:30pm.
- Catering for day will be done by Campus Kitchens (probably salad, breads for lunch)
- Kiersten will get prices for the tables, chairs and catering.

10. The resource faire will be held during lunch, possibly in the Pavillion.
