A Course of Study for

THEATRE ARTS - Transfer

The Theatre major can help prepare people for many career opportunities including work in the specific areas of theater production or performance as well as the related areas of advertising, television, film, recreation, education, and management. Theater managers manage theaters for stage productions or motion pictures. Related career titles include actor, director, costumer, script coach, stunt person, playwright, drama coach, set designer, business manager and instructor.

This major may also lead to many other careers. For additional possibilities, visit the Career Services Center on campus to utilize computerized career information systems and other valuable career resources.

TRANSFER

Students planning to transfer to a four-year college should complete the lower-division major requirements and the general education pattern for the appropriate transfer institution. Santa Monica College has articulation agreements for this major with the following UC, CSU, and private institutions. Exact major requirements for these and other UC and CSU campuses can be found online www.assist.org. Articulation agreements with private institutions can be found online at www.smc.edu/articulation.

The Department of Dramatic Art offers two degrees: a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre-Acting Emphasis, and a Bachelor of Arts in Dramatic Art. Both programs require completion of core courses in dramatic art; both programs provide a solid foundation in theatre arts and dramatic literature. The B.F.A. program prepares students for professional theatre, professional conservatory programs, and Master of Fine Arts programs. Students must audition for admittance to the highly selective B.F.A. program and are continually reevaluated on their demonstrated ability, commitment, and potential talent. The B.A. in Dramatic Art is a more broadly based degree, with a liberal arts orientation that allows students greater curricular choices. B.A. students may select a concentration in Directing; Dramatic Literature, Theory, and Theatre History; Playwriting; Theatre Design and Technology; or a combination of these areas. Consult the Department of Dramatic Art web site concerning additional requirements for the concentrations; www.dramadance.ucsb.edu/drama_degrees.php
