Frequently Asked Questions

I am not available these dates, will these sessions be recorded and made available for viewing later?

YES! They will be posted in Canvas Central.

Is there compensation for attendance?

You can use this time for flex. It is always a good time to upgrade our skills to better serve our students!

Should I attend all sessions or only a few?

We'd recommend to sign up for the sessions you are most interested and that will allow you to better teach and support students in the Winter and Spring. All sessions are open to all SMC employees, and sessions are designed to help better teach our students in an online environment. Last year the Faculty Showcase session was the most popular!

What other professional development opportunities are there for online teaching?

If you are new to Canvas and would like to learn the basics and how to navigate Canvas, please consider enrolling in Introduction to Teaching with Canvas course.

If you are already familiar with Canvas tools and want to explore online course design and effective teaching strategies in an online environment. Please register for our SMC 8-week Online Teaching & Design \(OTD\) certification course. Participation is optional and voluntary.
