TYRONE C. HOWARD

The Counter Narrative: Reframing Success of High Achieving Black and Latino Males in Los Angeles County

UCLA Professor of Education Dr. Tyrone C. Howard will discuss his research on academic achievement in urban schools and the achievement gap facing African American and other culturally diverse students. Cosponsored by the SMC Associates, Equity Steering Committee, and SMC UndocuAlly Program.

Tue, September 18 | 11:15 a.m. | Free Main Stage at Theatre Arts Complex

DENICE FROHMAN

The Power of the Spoken Word

Award-winning poet, writer, and performer Denice Frohman — the former Women of the World Poetry Slam Champion — will perform a selection of poetic pieces and provide insight about the power each one conveys. Cosponsored by the SMC Social Sciences/Philosophy Department, SMC English Department, and Associated Students of Santa Monica College.

Tue, October 16 | 11:15 a.m. | Free Main Stage at Theatre Arts Complex

CALIFORNIA'S FORGOTTEN CHILDREN

Documentary Film Screening and Q&A with Director Melody Miller

Child sex trafficking documentary California's Forgotten Children recounts true stories of girls and boys who were commercially sexually exploited in California and are now courageous leaders fighting for the rights of victims worldwide. Screening followed by Q&A with the film's director, Melody Miller, an award-winning cinematographer and creative storyteller. Sponsored by the SMC Associates, SMC Film Studies program, and SMC Communication & Media Studies Department.

Fri, November 30 | 6:30 p.m. | Free Center for Media and Design, Room 180

DR. LINDSAY PERÉZ-HUBER

Using Racial Microaggressions to Understand Everyday Racism

CSULB College of Education Professor Lindsay Pérez-Huber will examine the conceptual framework of racial microaggressions, and talk about how students of color are often viewed from deficit perspectives within educational institutions, resulting in subtle, everyday forms of racism that can hinder academic success. She will also address what individuals and institutions can do to challenge and disrupt these microaggressions.

Thu, September 20 | 11:15 a.m. | Free Stromberg Hall (HSS 165)

DR. ANTONIA DARDER

A Pedagogy of the Oppressed for Our Times: Paulo Freire 50 Years Later

To celebrate the 50th anniversary of publication of world-renowned Brazilian educator and philosopher Paulo Freire's seminal work Pedagogy of the Oppressed, LMU Professor of Education Leadership Dr. Antonia Darder will examine the revolutionary roots of Freire's ideas and how they are even more relevant and salient for the world now.

Tue, October 9 | 11:15 a.m. | Free Stromberg Hall (HSS 165)

DR. KYNDALL BROWN

Teaching Mathematics for Social Justice

Dr. Kyndall Brown, Executive Director of the California Mathematics Project and co-director for the UCLA Mathematics Project, will speak on the importance of quality mathematics and social justice teaching for equity to exist in the classroom. Cosponsored by the SMC Associates.
