TRANSFER WORKSHOP

Patty Nakao, SMC Academic Counselor

Have transfer questions? Come and learn about the transfer process from Patty Nakao, one of SMC's academic counselors. This workshop will not only go over the basics of the transfer process, but also will address concerns and issues specific to Asian Pacific Islander students.

Tue, May 2 | 11:15am – 12:15pm | Free | HSS 263

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS WORKSHOP

Nara Kim, Korean Resource Center

Recent changes in immigration policy have resulted in Immigration and Customs Enforcement and police stopping people they "suspect" are undocumented. However, these changes have impacted not just undocumented immigrants. So whether you are undocumented, a recent immigrant, or a foreign student, learn how to protect yourself. Nara Kim from the Korean Resource Center will lead an interactive workshop about your constitutional rights, regardless of immigration status.

Tue, May 9 | 11:15am – 12:30pm | Free | HSS 103

DUTERTE, DRUGS AND DEMOCRACY IN THE PHILIPPINES

G Töngi-Walters, Journalist

What does Filipino President Duterte's War on Drugs tell us about global politics today? Journalist and host of Kababayan Today G Töngi-Walters will discuss Duterte's significance for democracy, human rights, and global politics in our era of fake news.

Thu, May 18 | 11:15am – 12:30pm | Free | Art 214

Public parking is limited during the day at SMC. Please allow extra time when attending events. See www.smc.edu/transportation for parking options.

 If you need an accommodation due to a disability to participate in any of these events, please contact Stephanie Schlatter at schlatter\_stephanie@smc.edu or (310) 434-4313, at least 5 business days in advance.

Sponsored by the Department of History, Department of Communications & Media, Department of Philosophy & Social Sciences, Department of Modern Languages & Cultures, and SMC Associates.

LITTLE TOKYO/JAPANESE AMERICAN MUSEUM SCAVENGER HUNT

Dr. Sang Chi, Department of History

Come join some of SMC's history classes for a morning of fun in Little Tokyo! This historical scavenger hunt takes you through the Japanese American National Museum and the Little Tokyo neighborhood to learn about Japanese American history in Los Angeles. Compete against other teams to solve all the riddles. Winners get a treat! In order to participate in this event, you must sign a field trip waiver form and return it to Dr. Sang Chi (HSS 308) by May 20th. This trip is limited to the first 40 people to sign the waiver. You can find the waiver on top of the drawers across from HSS 307 in the History Department offices.

Sat, May 20 | 10:45am – 1:00pm
Museum Admission $5 | Front steps of Japanese American National Museum
100 N Central Ave, Los Angeles, CA 90012

THE FOREIGN LANGUAGE ADVANTAGE IN A GLOBAL ECONOMY

A panel of experts from diverse employment sectors discuss opportunities for bilingual employees.

Tue, May 23 | 11:15am – 12:30pm | Free
SMC Main Stage

SAIGU REMEMBERED: KOREAN AMERICA & THE MANY FACES OF THE 1992 LA RIOTS

Documentary Screening

How do we understand the 1992 Los Angeles Riots? Join us for a special screening of Dr. Sang Chi's Cal Humanities funded documentary about the 1992 Los Angeles Riots. This year is the 25th anniversary of the L.A. Riots, which Korean Americans call Saigu (4/29), the day the riots began. Told from the perspective of 1.5 and 2nd generation Korean American activists, reporters, and former gang members, Saigu Remembered examines the Korean American experience, from immigration to the explosive events of April 29, 1992, and ultimately reflects the multiple impacts, meanings and legacies of the L.A. Riots.

Thu, May 25 | 11:15am – 12:30pm | Free | HSS 165
