Beyond Gun Control: What Can Be Done to Reduce Violence in Our Society?

Join SMC sociology professor Dr. Rebecca Romo, SMC psychology professor Dr. Karen Gunn, former FBI agent Chris Woiwode, community activist Josef Sanchez, and others for a panel discussion—moderated by student trustee Chase Matthews—on how gun-violence reduction measures will continue to fall short without widespread individual and organized engagement in the transformation of our social values and practices. Sponsored by the SMC Associates, SMC’s Black Collegians Program, SMC’s Adelante Program, SMC English Department, and SMC Sociology Department.

Thu, March 1 | 11:15 a.m. | Free | HSS 165

Public parking is limited during the day at SMC. Please allow extra time when attending events. See smc.edu/transportation for parking options.

 If you need an accommodation due to a disability to participate in any of these events, please contact Stephanie Schlatter at schlatter_stephanie@smc.edu or (310) 434-4313, at least 5 business days in advance.

The Santa Monica College Associates is a community-based support group that brings outstanding speakers, performers, and special events to SMC to enhance student excellence. Associates members receive invitations to special receptions and advance notices of lectures. Annual Associates memberships are entirely tax-deductible. Call (310) 434-4100 or visit smc.edu/associates for more information.
