Masanga Marimba

A Musical Journey from Africa to Latin America

Masanga Marimba – led by SMC and CSU Northridge ethnomusicologist Dr. Ric Alviso – is the only marimba ensemble in Southern California that combines Latin and African traditions through music played on traditional instruments such as the marimba, mbira, and marimbo. With seven giant marimbas, drums, percussion, trombone, trumpet, and other instruments, Masanga Marimba will perform music from Zimbabwe, South Africa, and Cameroon, and Afro-Latin music from Colombia, Guatemala, and Mexico. The concert explores the journey of the marimba, from its use in the 1960s as an instrument for teaching music in schools in Zimbabwe, to becoming an essential part of dance music in Latin America and the national instrument of Guatemala. Masanga Marimba has performed at the Hollywood Bowl, Grand Performances, Getty Center, Skirball Cultural Center, Ford Amphitheatre, and many other high-profile music venues. The ensemble has also opened for Neil Young, Stephen Stills, John Mayer, Nora Jones, Father John Misty, Los Lobos, Ziggy Marley, Pink Martini, and many others.

Sponsored by the SMC Associates.

Tue, April 21 | 11:15 a.m. | Free | SMC Quad
