 1. A fascinating Chinese-Irish-American California author, has tentatively agreed to give a reading on campus in early October 2016 as part of the Fall 2016 Literary Series. Knowing that we are a public college with perennial budget cuts, she has agreed to a 50% reduction in her usual honorarium. As she is travelling from San Francisco, I am seeking additional funds to supplement the modest honorarium that the SMC Associates provide. Her novels and short stories are about Chinese-Cambodians and the Asian-American experience; her novel Tiger Girl is about a nineteen-year-old Khmer Rouge survivor and Cambodian refugee.
