4. Approval of minutes: Motion by D. Kinsella to approve the minutes of May 24, 2018. Seconded by P. Morris. Approved unanimously.

I. Study Abroad

- The Council will look into the possibility of future faculty professional development opportunities that include study abroad.
- The 2019 summer Latin America Study Abroad program has been revised. The group will travel to Belize only and not include Guatemala as it had on previous trips because of the heightened U.S. State Department travel advisory. There will be an in-country tour operator to assist the group while in Belize. Because this will probably increase the cost of the trip, the amount of scholarship funds for qualified students will be examined to see if it can be increased.
- The Council will look into the possibility of offering a one-week Field Study Abroad trip during spring break and a second one-week trip during summer session rather than offering the two trips simultaneously during spring break. Flexible pricing options starting at a minimum 10 students/1 faculty and up to 18 students/2 faculty will be considered. The price would decrease as more students sign up. Currently, the pricing is based on 18 students/2 faculty.

II. Faculty Study Abroad proposals for Summer 2019

Two faculty proposals had been submitted for Summer 2019 to Latin America:

- Deborah Novak: Nutrition 1-Introduction to Nutrition Science
- Eleanor Strauss: Anthro 2-Cultural Anthropology

After discussion motion was made by P. Morris and seconded by C. Davis to recommend both proposals to Academic Affairs. The motion was approved unanimously by P. Morris, A. Tower, D. Kinsella, C. Davis, J. London, and D. Broccard.

III. Faculty Field Studies Abroad proposals for Spring 2019

Three faculty proposals had been submitted for Spring Field Studies Abroad

- Delphine Broccard, Communications and Brandon Reilly, History: Costa Rica-One World, Indivisible, with Rura Vida and Justice for All
- Aurelie Chevant-Aksoy, Modern Languages and Shanon Zusman, Music: Meet Me in Paris
- Catherine Miller, ECE: Outdoor Early Education in Denmark

After discussion a motion was made by D. Kinsella and seconded by Carol Davis to recommend the Costa Rica proposal to Academic Affairs with Delphine Broccard as lead for the trip for 17 or less participants and Brandon Reilly can be added as the second faculty leader if there are 18-25 participants. It was approved unanimously by P. Morris, A. Tower, D. Kinsella, C. Davis, and J. London. D. Broccard recused from voting on her own proposal.

A motion was made by J. London and seconded by C. Davis to recommend the Denmark proposal to Academic Affairs. This trip must have a minimum of 10 and maximum of 17 participants with Catherine Miller as the lead for the trip.

IV. International Education Week

The Vice-Chair will contact Nancy Grass, Dean, Student Life, to see if Associated Students is interested in coordinating an International Fair on the quad for IEW.

V. VIP Welcome Day recap

The VIP Welcome Day was a great success with many students stopping by the Study Abroad and the Global Citizenship booths. 247 students provided their contact information so that they can receive future email messaging about study abroad opportunities.

VI. Agenda items postponed until September 25, 2018 meeting

As time had expired for the meeting the following items were moved to the next Council meeting on September 25, 2018: Winter 2020 Study Abroad program and Support/Promote GC Theme.

VII. Adjournment: Motion: C. Davis. Second: by D. Broccard. Approved unanimously at 3:00 pm. The next meeting will be Thursday, September 27, 2018 – 12:45 pm HSS 301

COMMITTEE NAME REVISION?

From: MAZOROW MOYA

A decision has to be made about the name of this committee. It is called Global Council in some places and Global Citizenship in others.

From Nate Donahue:

Personally I like Global Citizenship better, but perhaps the committee should vote on an official choice at your first meeting....

I would prefer this committee have a title that distinguishes it as the Senate Joint Committee that deals with many issues one of which is Global Citizenship as related to students but another is related to programs for faculty and staff. Other schools use Global Education Committee or Global Projects Committee.

Basically if we want to call it Global Council than we need to rename the header on the page the Senate Site links to (currently called Global Citizenship) so that it accurately reflects the link and reorder the intro on that page putting the committee information first since people hit the link about the committee so that is probably the info they are initially looking for. That said, I like this page and trying to figure a work around. I think it is actually two separate pages that link to each other.

If we call the committee Global Citizenship then we need to be careful about other uses. So for example: The Global Citizenship Requirement is not a requirement of the committee but of the college. So it is all getting messy because the names are now so interlinked.

My concern about the name Global Council is that it seems like District planning and advisory council and might be interpreted as district wide committee.

Global Citizenship is found in multiple different uses: We have the flyer that refers to SMC's Global Citizenship initiative. <http://www.smc.edu/GlobalCitizenship/Documents/GlobalCitizenshipFlyer.pdf>

What does it mean that initiative is not capitalized?

We have Global citizenship: <http://www.smc.edu/GlobalCitizenship/Pages/default.aspx><http://www.smc.edu/GlobalCitizenship/Pages/default.aspx> Who defined Global Citizenship as stated on this page in April 2018? Probably should be referenced.

We have the Global Citizenship

Requirement: <http://www.smc.edu/ACG/AcademicSenate/CurriculumCommittee/Pages/Global-Citizenship.aspx>

We have a different link that is part of academic senate site: <http://www.smc.edu/ACG/AcademicSenate/Pages/Global-Citizenship.aspx>
