IV. Standing Business

a. Questions of the Day

Any life updates since last semester? What are you looking forward to in 2021?

b. Spotlighting Human Rights

For spring 2021, committee members will continue to take turns sharing items regarding Human Rights. We have signups for the next five meetings.

c. Human Rights Theme promotion

The GC Human Rights page has a new resource provided by Erica Onugha. A link to the International Journal of Human Rights Education.

d. GC Symposium and Advertising

The GC Symposium application for students is open until March 23rd. The committee discussed methods of advertising the GC Symposium to students to encourage their participation.

- i. Jeremy Lange, IEC specialist, shared social media ideas and graphics created by IEC peer mentor students which can be posted on the IEC Facebook page and other forms of social media to advertise the symposium. The committee provided suggestions for revisions. He will return with the amended items to the committee on March 11th.
- ii. A JPEG/PNG file of the GC flyer can be shared with all faculty. They can drop the file into CANVAS so their students see it.
- iii. Committee members signed up to make public announcements at the beginning of the Associated Students, PTK, ICC and Model Student UN meetings between Mar 1 and Mar 16. Delphine will send speaking points for committee members.
- iv. The previous source of funding for GC Symposium awards is no longer available. The committee discussed ideas for new forms of funding. Delphine will contact Isaac Rodriguez in Associated Students to see if AS can help with funding awards. Nancy will contact the SMC Foundation to see if we can set up a program through them to solicit donations for awards.
