Alex Boyd: Take note that Mitch made a comment on 20 percent of the money they are getting reimbursed to be used for any paper material

Counselor/ICC Advisor: Benny Blaydes; Indicating on cash advance, 30 dollars' cash advance for 15 people who come up first and show the financial need.

Counselor/PT Advisor: Jeff Gordon: We might have 100 people coming up?

President of Associated Students: Jennifer Chen: we can budget the money, so 30 dollars is fine?

Communication Officer; To be clear it is 30 dollars for the 15 people to get reimbursed, make it be 20?

ICC Chair: Kyana Shajari : Agreed to change the amount of students who may get reimbursed. There will be a cash advance for 20 people and the amount will only be 30 dollars for those 20 only, which will be deducted from their financial reimbursement.

Alexa B.: We can only keep track of candidates of how much paper they will be using by submitting an expense report.

President of Associated Students: Jennifer Chen motion to change the wording of funding of paper use for campaigning material to 20 percent second by ICC Communications Officer: Maritza Lopez

Roll Call:

ICC Chair: Kyana Shajari A

President of Associated Students: Jennifer Chen A

ICC Communications Officer: Maritza Lopez A

Club Officer 1: Nia Gilshteyn A

Amended: Adding cashed advance only for student fitting the criteria (low-income). . passed without objection

2.2 Discuss and approve dates for the election, run-off elections, and mandatory candidate meetings.

President of Associated Students: Jennifer Chen: Why would write ins be a disadvantage?

Counselor/PT Advisor: Jeff Gordon; Never seen a write in to win over the person who has been running

Counselor/ICC Advisor: Benny - white ins are done because they need to submit paperwork last minute.

We do not have added publicity, this happens all the time. People have biases.
