

Information for Students Interested in Assessment

I don't have any documentation, but I'm struggling in my classes. Can I be assessed for a learning disability?

Unfortunately, due to the current health crisis, the LD office is operating from a remote environment. This means we are unable to offer assessment classes.

However, we can get the process started!

First, gather the necessary paperwork:

- A Completed Short Intake Form (link below the video)
- A Signed Rights and Responsibilities Form (link below the video)

Email your paperwork to LD@SMC.EDU. Make sure you mention you're interested in assessment!

Once we receive your email, a staff member will contact you to set up an appointment.

Appointments are available Monday – Thursday via phone call or zoom meeting. Let us know what you prefer!

If approved, you'll be ready to start the testing process as soon as we're back in office!

In some cases, you may also qualify for temporary accommodations while we're still remote.
